Providing Support

to

Families

All About Us

Virginia E. Brown, Director, founded the Baby Program in 2004. This program is a support system developed to meet the needs of low-income mothers, fathers, grandparents and guardians within the community.

Our goal is to continue the efforts of the governmental programs such as the Women's Infant & Children program (WIC). We promote healthy eating habits and care for infants and toddlers. Families that come to the Baby Program are recipients of WIC as well.

Many families are grateful to our program as we pick up where such programs as WIC leave off. While they are waiting for governmental support or if they are not eligible for governmental support we help to fill their needs. Community members report this program is essential to many families.

"We show God's love to families by providing baby formula, food, diapers, wipes clothes, and essential baby supplies as well as awareness and guidance" said Virginia E. Brown, Founder and Director."

"The people we serve really wish they didn't fall into circumstances like these", said Mondesir, a mother of four, who volunteers at the program.

"Many of our mothers work, but after they pay their rent, they cannot afford to buy formula or diapers. They're glad we're here to support them."
