Our Soup Kitchen

Mission

Our Soup Kitchen is staffed by caring volunteers motivated to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, and welcome strangers.

Our goal? To provide healthy, appetizing meals at no cost to the hungry. We provide a place of hospitality and fellowship for the lonely.

Everyone is welcome, regardless of race, sex, age, culture, religion, disability or financial status. Anyone who comes into our doors is welcomed without question!

Funding for our program comes primarily from the Food Bank, City Harvest and United Way.

Our ministry serves as a positive force, seeking to affect the spirits and lives of people in need, we provide encouragement, direction, and assistance. We strongly promote independence with respect and dignity.

Lunch

Our Soup Kitchen serves hot meals, once a week, walk-ins are welcomed. We serve approximately 150 people.

Feed the hungry,
empower the community

Just the Facts:

- The primary cause of hunger is poverty
- Every year more than six million children die of hunger
